*Doubleheader with Men's Team

OUTLOOK

On the surface, it appears that the Terrapins 1979-80 lineup has been decimated to the point that a third consecutive AIAW tournament appearance would seem highly unlikely. With four of five starters gone, Maryland Coach Chris Weller faces her first rebuilding year since reaching national prominence.

However, anyone looking beneath the surface will quickly realize that Weller has a team with the ingredients of a national champion. The only quality this team lacks is experience. The 1979-80 Terrapin lineup features five freshmen and three sophomores among its group. Height is no problem, with this years team having an average height of 5 feet 11.7 inches, and freshmen, Debbie Lytle and Rachelle Willett, having quickness comparable to that of all-time Terp great Tara Heiss. But only three of the eleven players have had more than one year of college ball under their belts.

Gone are 1977 Pan-Am team members Jane Zivalich and Betsy Bailey, all-time leading rebounder Debbie Stewart, and the backcourt duo of Lisa Schlesinger and Lisa Abood. Coach Weller, has however, recruited four highly talented freshmen, who along with Kris Kirchner, Pam Reaves, Krystal Kimrey, Myra Waters, Lydia McAliley, and Gail Hook are expected to keep the Terps in the top ten for the third straight year.

Weller feels, "The freshmen are going to be indoctrinated very quickly. They are moving directly into the top five in terms of toughness of schedule. Obviously I am expecting some of the freshmen to start. I think it will take a month or so of competition, and they're going to have to play a couple of real strong teams in December. Those games will be a real good test, — if we can stay even with those teams in December, we should be really strong at the end of the year."

Kris Kirchner, the Washington Post's Player of the Year last season, returns to anchor at center. She is being counted on to provide leadership and stability from her center spot. Kirchner recently completed a tour of the Far East and Puerto Rico while competing with this years Pan-Am squad. She needs only five rebounds to become the Terrapins all-time leader in that department.

Pam Reaves, who played in all 29 games last year, averaging 8.4 points per game, is another big key in Weller's plans. "We are going to have to find or develop an outside shooter. If Pam has a good year as shooting guard we are going to be a very, very good team."

Captain Krystal Kimrey returns for her final year at Maryland and should once again be helped by another summer of experience with Athletes in Action.

Other returnees expected to contribute heavily are forwards Myra Waters, Lydia McAliley, and Gail Hook. Waters, who got off to a slow start last season due to an ankle injury, ended the year on a good note, shooting 55% from the floor and making 41 steals. McAliley and Hook two 6 foot 1 returnees saw limited action last year and will probably be counted on more this year to make up for the loss of Stewart and Zivalich.

Debbie Lytle, a 5'10" freshman guard out of Philadelphia, is according to Weller, "the top high school recruit of the season." She is a first team Parade All-American who averaged 25.3 points and 15.4 rebounds a game last season, while achieving all-state honors. She was recently selected to the East squad of the Junior Olympic Team and Coach Weller feels "she is playing like a Junior or Senior right now".

The other three recruits can boast similar statistics. Jasmina Perazic is a 6-foot 1 forward from Yugoslavia who averaged 22.3 points per game while achieving "Player of the Year" honors in Germany's class A competition. She was also the Most Valuable Player of the Class A Tournament where she averaged 29.7 points per game. 5-foot 8 guard Rachelle Willett from Westbury, Long Island averaged 24 points and a phenominal 25 rebounds per contest. She was a member of the Nassau County All-Star Team. Coach Weller said that "she may be the quickest player I've seen." Rounding out the recruits is another top-notch guard, 5-foot 8 Dana Crone, of Ridgeley, West Virginia. Dana was All-State for two years while averaging 23 points, 10.2 rebounds, 9 steals and 7 assists per game her entire high school career.

All in all Maryland has an excellent chance to make it to the AIAW national tournament once more and hopefully all the way to the top.

THE NATION'S TOP BASKETBALL STAFF

CHRIS WELLER

Chris Weller, entering her fifth year as head coach of the women's basketball team, is fast establishing a reputation as one of the best. A 1966 graduate of the University, her first four year coaching record stands at 86-21. In her first season as coach she led Maryland to its first 20 victory season ever (20-4). In addition to capturing the Maryland State Championship, the Terrapins placed fourth in the EAIAW Regional Tournament. The 1976-77 season found Maryland closing out the year with a 17-6 record, again placing fourth in their region and ranked 16th nationally. The 1977-78 season was by far the most successful year ever for a Maryland basketball team. Finishing the year with a 27-4 record, the Terps won the first ACC Women's Championship and were runner-up in the AIAW National Tournament — ending the season ranked second in the nation. This past season Weller added her third 20 plus victory season, ending the year with a 22-7 record. Other highlights included the 1st Orange Bowl Women's Classic Championship, their second consecutive ACC Championship and, for the second year, participation in the AIAW National Tournament.

Coach Weller played four years of varsity basketball while attending the University. Following graduation she taught and coached basketball, gymnastics, track, tennis and initiated lacrosse in the Montgomery County School System at John F. Kennedy High School in Silver Spring, Maryland. She is a very popular speaker at coaching clinics and has attracted hundreds of girls to her annual basketball camp over the last three summers.

Indicative of her coaching abilities, Chris has been the Assistant Coach at the AIAW-HANES All-American Classic its first two years, Head Coach of the East Squad in the 1979 Classic and was Head Coach of the Gold-Medal winning 1978 East Junior Women's team that competed in the first U.S.A. National Sports Festival in Colorado Springs, Colorado.

ANN POFFENBARGER

Brand new to the Maryland coaching staff Ann brings with her familiarity in regard to the system having graduated from the University in 1975. While attending Maryland she was a member of the basketball team for four years, leading them in both scoring and rebounding in 1974, played tennis for two years and was a member of the 1971 track team. Since graduating, Ann has served as the head women's basketball coach at nearby George Washington University from 1975-77 and last year taught and coached the women's track and field team at William & Mary in Williamsburg, Virginia.

ROXANNE DALE

Like Poffenbarger, Roxanne Dale also begins her first year at Maryland this fall and brings with her a fine background. A 1977 graduate of Slippery Rock State, Dale became an assistant Varsity coach as well as head Junior Varsity coach her senior year. After a two year stay at her alma mater Roxanne moved on last year to serve as Athletic Director and head Women's Basketball coach at Garrett Community College in Western Maryland. She is currently working toward her masters degree in Physical Education.

SANDRA WORTH
Women's Trainer

"Sandy" Worth begins her sixth year as head trainer for the ten women's Varsity sports at Maryland. A graduate of Maryland (1973), Sandy holds a B.S. in Physical Education.

Sandy was a Terrapin athlete, playing field hockey and basketball for four years. She became interested in the training field when she suffered an injury, but fortunately it was not a debilitating one and she was able to continue playing until graduation. Upon returning to the lineup she continued in a dual capacity as player and student trainer.

Now, certified by the National Athletic Trainers Association (N.A.T.A.), Sandy heads the women's training staff, coordinating the women student-trainers.

COURTNEY SINES
Head Secretary,
Women's Athletics

Courtney has been secretary to Chris Weller and the Maryland women's sports coaches for the past three years. Her responsibilities include the day to day management of the Women's athletic office and handling the correspondence of the Assistant A.D. and the eight coaches. Her constant smile and good nature, coupled with an extreme organizational talent has kept operations running smoothly.

Originally from New Market, Virginia, she and her husband Blaine reside now in Laurel, Maryland with one of their two sons.

PATTI WESSEL FLYNN
Assistant Sports Information
Director

Patti Flynn is a 1977 graduate of Maryland and joined the Sports Information staff in 1978.

She is primarily responsible for the 10 sport women's program but works with all 23 varsity sports.

Following graduation she worked with the Maryland Educational Foundation in the areas of fund raising and promoting the Women's program.

She has hosted several AIAW regional tournaments and traveled with the basketball team throughout the nation including the AIAW finals in California.

As an undergraduate she played for the Maryland basketball team and graduated cum laude with a B.S. in Marketing.

Patti came to Maryland from nearby Regina High with her home in Greenbelt. She married Tim Flynn, also a Maryland graduate, this past summer.

The "All-American" Manager Team:

COLE FIELD HOUSE

The athletic facilities at Maryland University are among the finest in the nation.

Cole Field House, center of the Terrapin Athletic program, is home of the women's basketball team. Built in 1955, it is one of the most famous landmarks on campus. One of the largest facilities on the east coast, the 14,500 seat arena is a prime site for national and international competition.

Located within Cole Field House is the new nautilus facility. Air - conditioned and fully panelled, the two room, five machine set-up is used by Terrapin athletes and is part of Chris Weller's pre-season conditioning program.

The women's locker room and athletic training room are situated across the corridor. Carpeted in the bright Maryland red both rooms serve to prepare the athletes prior to game time.

MARYLAND PLAYERS MAKE INTERNATIONAL SCENE

International competition tests the American athlete to his or her extreme. The pressure of the actual competition is sometimes less than that experienced during the U.S. tryouts. In any event, representing the United States in international competition is both an honor and a reward to the long hours spent working on developing the athletic skills that ranks that athlete among the best in the United States.

The University of Maryland women's basketball team boasts several players selected to represent the United States. Among these is the Terrapin all-time leading scorer and holder of 16 team records, Tara Heiss. Maryland's starting point guard for three seasons, Heiss can best be remembered for the 1977-78 senior campaign which saw her team capture the first ACC Women's Championship and reach the final game of the National Championship Tournament, ending the year 27-4, ranked second in the nation.

In the summer of '78 Heiss was selected to the twelve player U.S. women's team that toured the Orient and was the only American chosen to the Big-Four All-Tournament team. In November of the same year she was again selected to play for the U.S. National Team against the People's Republic of China National Touring team in Madison Square Garden.

This past April, Heiss was selected to the U.S. Pan American squad that won its first World Women's Basketball Championship since 1957 in Seoul. In that Tournament Heiss was voted the most popular player. Her travels with the '79 Pan Am Team took her additionally to Puerto-Rico, Mexico and Moscow.

Current Terrapin Kris Kirchner has represented the United States for the past three summers — accumulating more international playing time than any other Terp, past or present. The 6'4" All-American center played with the 1977 U.S. Junior Pan American team that toured Mexico City and won the Cristonbal Colon Cup. In 1978 she was selected to play on the U.S.A. National Women's team which traveled to the VIII Bulgarian Basketball Federation Tournament in Burgas, Bulgaria and in 1979 she joined former teammate Heiss on the U.S. Pan American Team.

This year's team captain and lone senior Krystal Kimrey spent her last two summers in Europe, playing for Athletes in Action. The 6'5" North Carolina native gained valuable experience travelling through Italy.

Jane Zivalich, a four year letter winner at Maryland, was selected in 1977 to play on the Junior Pan Am team that competed in a tournament in Tawain sponsored by the Basketball Association of the Republic of China. An outstanding competitor, Zivalich was kept from international competition the following year, due to a knee injury she sustained in the semi-final game against Wayland Baptist, in March of '78.

Sophomore Myra Waters of Toledo, Ohio was selected to the Mid-West Junior Women's Basketball squad that attended the 1978 Olympic Festival in Colorado. She was then selected, along with eleven other girls from the four team total, to the U.S. Junior team that was to tour Peru. A previous committment prevented Waters from making the trip.
